Attention: Mobiles keeping students

To revive the memory of mobile possessing students, it is re-conveyed that mobiles must remain switched off within college premises.

If found in active mode and even if, the owner is not using it, ridiculous excuses like, mobile is 'on silent mode' or it is 'on vibration mode' will not be eared and might face seizure of mobile for seven days. And, those students who are found repeatedly violating the norms, will be dispossessed of their mobiles permanently and will not get their device again.

However, mobile owners can 'ON' their device during Lunch Time and shutdown it as soon as lunch is over.
